

DONOR ACTIVIST BINGO

Is someone who has made a planned gift and allowed the organization to publicize their name and gift...	Is someone who has signed a petition...	Is someone who has been a medical advocate for someone...	Is someone who has attended a protest...	Is someone who has lobbied an elected official...
Is someone who has volunteered at a community organization...	Is someone who has donated to a political campaign...	Is someone who has a Twitter account...	Is someone who has used Facebook or other social media platforms to educate people about a cause...	Is someone who has organized a social justice event...
Is someone who has phone banked for a cause close to their heart...	Is someone who has written a letter to a news outlet to ask for more women's coverage...	(FREE)	Is someone who has applied for a grant for an organization...	Is someone who has served on a board of a city/state/national nonprofit...
Is someone who has encouraged a young person to get involved...	Is someone who has been a mentor to an at-risk youth...	Is someone who has stood up at a meeting to offer an alternative...	Is someone who has written a media release...	Is someone who has staged a vigil...
Is someone who has trained a person/group in advocacy/undertaken advocacy training...	Is someone who has published a report advocating change...	Is someone who has attended a meeting on a local/national issue...	Is someone who has used graffiti to take a stand...	Is someone who has participated in a giving circle...

Directions:

- Place the name of one person per square who fits the description.
- Ask one question per person. You must contact everyone else in the group before asking the same person a second question.
- You may not use yourself; go to people you know or ask someone which one fits them.

